Split-Dalmatia County – as safe as it is beautiful!

With its beautiful coastline, historic towns and rich culture, this region is one of the most desirable tourist destinations in Europe.

The low crime rate, the warmth and kindness of locals and the general feeling of safety among residents and visitors make the Split-Dalmatia County an ideal place for a carefree holiday.

Your safety is also our responsibility, so please be properly informed.

According to 2023 Eurostat data, Croatia stands out as the safest country in the European Union, with the lowest rate of reported crimes, violence and vandalism (Source: Government of the Republic of Croatia / HINA).

During 2024, 20.7 million overnight stays were recorded in the Split-Dalmatia County, with a minimum number of reported incidents. This confirms the commitment, professionalism and excellent organisation of local institutions in maintaining a safe environment for tourists and locals alike. Local police, emergency services and tourist information centres are well coordinated and available in multiple languages, which further contributes to the feeling of safety of visitors.

In order to help our visitors to find proper information easily, we have developed a web app containing all the important information.
